"Seeing a Broadway show live helps people with disabilities grow as individuals and learn new skills." Alex Haunty

We had fun in 2024 taking a group to see the Penguin Project's version of Shrek the Musical, JR. It was inspiring to see a cast entirely made up of young actors with special needs, differing abilities and peer mentors. We continue to make plans to do another musical in the future with our Inspiring Hope group. It was so much fun to do A Year With Frog and Toad musical in 2022.

Alex Haunty got to meet with the cast of Shrek.

Big Plans for 2025

2025 is promising to be a full year. In February we are taking a group to see Cinderella put on by Children's Theatre Madison (CTM).

Then, Overture Center is bringing Wicked to Madison in Summer 2025 and we will be there in full force. It's going to be exciting to see this favorite.

And for the first time, three Inspiring Hope artists, Alex Haunty, Max Divelbiss and Anastacia Wilson will be showing their artwork in one of the Overture Center galleries. Their work will be up from June thru August.

THANK YOU

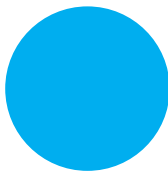

We thank everyone for their generous donations in 2023/2024 to help give those with disabilities the opportunity to attend the theater and participate in the arts. (This report covers 18 months as we transition to reporting our fiscal year from July to June.)
